Church Decorating

By G. H. SCHANBACHER & SON

Means Real Satisfaction

FOR thirty-five years we have been decorating churches. We have been making a real study of this work and from experience and study know just what treatment to use to give the desired churchly effect in keeping with your architecture.

Write us. We shall be pleased to submit estimates and show you the best color effect and treatment for your church. Our representative may be in your vicinity soon. Would you like to have him stop in to see you?

Even though you are not expecting to decorate at once you may be interested in seeing our new book "Church Interiors," which has been published to give information and help to church committees considering decorating. This we shall be glad to send you upon request.

THE OLD FOLKS' HOME

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Lawrenceville, Illinois

"Loving Care for Sunset Years"

The purpose of Jesus in coming to earth was to give life. One of the principal features of His ministry was to prolong life and to contribute to the happiness of those who came to Him. It is the purpose of the Old Folks' Home to provide those necessities and comforts and that loving care that lighten the burdens of the sunset years. Thus life is prolonged and the deeds of mercy which the Master began are continued in His name.

It is your privilege to have a part in this beautiful Christian service. A memorial to departed friends or loved ones or a tribute to the living can very fittingly be made in establishing a memorial room in the Home. No monument could be more appropriate.

The Board is offering an attractive proposition in Annuity Bonds which pay a good income during life. No taxes, no rise and fall in the market, no will to probate. An investment that is a benevolence.

In making your will include the Old Folks' Home as a beneficiary, using the corporate title which appears at the head of this page. A memorial bequest is a tribute to the departed and a perpetual service to the living.

Inquiries concerning wills, memorials, and annuities should be addressed to

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

The greatest needs challenge our most heroic efforts. Shall we, like the army of Saul, fear before the haughty boasts of the giant wrong, or shall we like David use the means in our hands, and meet the challenge? This is a time for a great advance. The man is still calling from the Macedonias of the world "Come over and help us." We must save the world or be lost with it.

We call upon the whole Church to use every effort in prayer and service to secure a great advance in our missionary labors, and save those for whom Christ died.

We commend our Epworth Leagues in their purpose to purchase an automobile for the use of our missionary representative on the foreign field, Rev. J. W. Nave, and urge that their plans be pushed to early consummation.

We urge all our Pastors to keep the membership of our Churches informed on the needs and development of the work of the Bareilly District in India, which is being served by our own representative, Rev. J. W. Nave.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education met on Saturday, September 27, 1930, and in the absence of Cameron Harmon, C. R. Yost was elected chairman pro tem. The result of the election for membership on the Board will appear in the list of Boards and Commissions.

McKendree College, the outstanding educational Institute of the Conference, reports the largest enrollment in years, with an increased faculty of higher standing than in former years. Many additions in equipment and repairs have added to the efficiency and attractiveness of the College. We wish to express the appreciation of the Board and of the College for the splendid co-operation of the Conference.

Dr. Lee Knotts, business manager of Wesley Foundation, was present and represented the Foundation. Dr. Irl G. Whitchurch brought a report of Garrett Biblical Institute, and represented the Theological Schools of Methodism.

The work of the church schools throughout the Conference has been very commendable, as has also been the work of the Epworth Leagues and Church Training Night programs.

(Signed) CAMERON HARMON, Chairman.
F. E. HARRIS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF EPWORTH LEAGUE DIRECTORS

The Conference reports of last year showed a decrease in both young people's and Senior Leagues and Intermediate Leagues. We have tried to emphasize the Epworth League work in the Conference throughout the year with varying results. We do not know what the numerical strength of the League will be this year, but we are confident that there has been greater interest in the work of the Kingdom of God among our Leaguers.

There has been some dissatisfaction among the pastors and some Leagues in regard to the devotional topic material in the "Epworth Herald." The Board recommends that where the material is not suitable for the local group of young people, they substitute, using the undated units or any other study or devotional material that they may choose.

The economic stringency has asserted itself most everywhere and our Leagues have not escaped it in the Southern Illinois Conference for we are at the bottom of the list in World Service giving through the Epworth League. We recommend and urge that wherever it is possible the local chapters use the Twenty-four-Hour-Day plan of giving to the Central Office for the development of young people's work around the world.

The development of the sub-district movement in the Conference has had some influence in our District Conventions to decrease the attendance. However, we believe that this sub-district movement is a forward step and that it brings together our young people more often and in larger groups. If the District officers will take advantage of this organization it will help them greatly in the development of their program.

The Mid-Winter Institute is proving a great boon to the Religious Educational Program of the Church. A number of these Institutes have developed in the Districts and Sub-Districts of the Conference, and very efficient and worth-while work has been done in them.

It was made necessary, because of local conditions, for the Institute Commission of the Conference to merge the two Summer Institutes of the Conference this year. There was a large registration at the McKendree Institute as a result of the merger, but there were only a few of them from the Southern part of the Conference.

We trust that every pastor will do his utmost to cultivate the field of youth in his church, and where practicable organize Intermediate and Junior Epworth Leagues. We feel that this is the richest field for cultivation in the building of the Kingdom of God.

(Signed) FRANK E. HARRIS, President.
HARRY REED, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in its Seventy-ninth session desires to express its sincere appreciation and thanks to Dr. C. C. Hall, the pastor, to the members of the Lawrenceville Methodist Episcopal Church, and to the citizens of Lawrenceville for their gracious hospitality during the Conference session.

We record our grateful appreciation of the presidency of Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes. His Christian courtesy, wise counsel and leadership have been an inspiration and delight.

The evangelistic addresses of Rev. Lewis R. Akers, D.D., LL.D., president of Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky, have strengthened our faith in God and increased our zeal for Christian truth.

We appreciate the visit and splendid address of Bishop Edwin F. Lee, D.D., Singapore, Malaysia, as well as the addresses of the other speakers appearing on our program.

(Signed) B. H. BATSON, Chairman
T. B. SOWERS, Secretary.

RESOLUTION WELCOMING BISHOP HUGHES

Whereas, in the assignment of Bishops to the Annual Conferences, the Southern Illinois Conference was assigned to Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, D.D., LL.D., and

Whereas, the Southern Illinois Conference, by the action of the Bishops has been placed under the administration of Bishop Hughes for the remainder of this quadrennium.

Therefore, Be It Resolved that we welcome his presidency and his presence as our presiding officer, and offer him the full measure of our co-operation in the conducting of Conference business, and in keeping to the front those spiritual influences that ought to characterize the Annual Conference session.

Be It Further Resolved, that we offer our prayers that the Spirit of God may so lead his judgment that the solution of our problems under his leadership may greatly aid us in the building of His Kingdom.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION APPOINTED TO LOOK INTO THE MATTER OF EQUALIZING THE SALARIES OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Your Commission met, organized and sought to prepare a report on equalization. However, the Commission doubted the advisability of proceeding in accordance with Paragraph 378 of the 1928 Discipline and desires to ask that the Conference receive a report on the matter of redistricting the Conference with a view to equalizing both work and salaries.

We, your Committee on Prohibition and the Committee on Temperance concurring, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. We express our dissatisfaction with the situation created by the candidate for the United States Senate who accepted dry support in the Primaries as a dry candidate, and now declines to adhere to the position until fortified by a popular referendum. This we regard as a practical betrayal of the dry cause and of the dry forces.

2. In view of the widespread interest in the referendum we suggest that the best referendum is a candidate who emphatically and unequivocally stands for the dry cause. Therefore we urge our people to vote for Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill who takes a clear-cut and honest stand against the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and does not waver in her loyalty to the policy of national Prohibition.

3. We congratulate the Anti-Saloon League on its wise refusal to be caught in the meshes of political intrigue, and its steady and fearless adherence to the principles it was set to guard and promote.

C. L. PETERSON, Chairman
ORIN H. YOUNG.

BIBLE CAUSE REPORT

Realizing that it is only by the spread of the Word of God that the good news of Salvation is carried forward and people everywhere led to the Christ who is able to deliver from sin and sorrow,

Therefore, be it resolved, that we encourage every means of distributing the Bible throughout the whole world.

ALTON HOSPITAL PROPOSITION

Whereas, a competent survey shows that there is a great need for more hospitalization in Alton and vicinity. And

Whereas, Mrs. Ellen Smith, a member of the Baptist Church of Alton, proposes to donate the sum of One Hundred Thousand ($100,000) Dollars, and a suitable site of Ten Acres. And

Whereas, it is proposed to supplement these gifts by other considerable sums sufficient to build an adequate institution. And

Whereas, the effective working of such an institution requires the administration of an already authoritative organization.

Therefore, the citizens of Alton and vicinity, including the Ministerial Alliance, and representatives of other denominations and the Medical Practitioners and other representative citizens of Alton and vicinity hereby Request the Southern Illinois Conference to endorse this proposition and to sponsor it according to such customs as obtain in the Methodist Episcopal Church with reference to local institutions.

W. R. CURTIS,
H. B. BRITTON,
N. C. HENDERSON,
Committee.

Whereas, we have adopted the resolutions above

Be It Resolved, that the Southern Illinois Conference of the Methodist Church, instruct and empower the Board of Hospitals and Homes to elect a Board of Trustees according to the Standard Form in our Discipline, and also authorize the Local Board of Trustees to plan for a campaign in the Alton District and vicinity, to raise sufficient funds to erect, equip and maintain a Hospital in Alton, according to the funds received and the needs of the community without placing a debt upon the conference.

WE WILL ANSWER THE CALL

The Southern Illinois Conference observes with grave concern the present opportunities and meaningful needs of the World Service of our church. We wish to meet this situation of unusual emergency with prophetic devotion to our world-wide evangelism and service which are so vitally at stake in October, 1930.

We prayerfully recognize the necessity for immediate and hearty attention to World Service in every charge of this Conference during the month of October.

We pledge ourselves to definite action in at least the following ways:

1. Each charge make the largest possible remittance for World Service during the month of October.

2. Earnestly seek by public presentation and private personal interview some payment for World Service from each member during October.

3. Secure as much as possible toward the 10,500 units of $100 each which are asked from the church as a whole in additional personal contributions during October.

4. Observe Sunday, October 19, as "Missionary Day" in all our churches with strong pulpit messages. (Some other Sunday in October to be chosen where local conditions make it more convenient.)

5. During the week of October 6 hold a district meeting in each district with World Service and its present needs as chief matters of consideration.

6. During the week of October 13 cover the conference by sub-district meeting to reach large numbers of laymen and to perfect plans for best results in every charge.

7. Organize immediately a Conference World Service Council consisting of the district superintendent, one pastor and one layman from each district, chosen by the superintendent, together with such others as the Council itself may add to their number to promote education and enlistment in World Service throughout the year, as well as the special effort in October.

We respectfully suggest that the emphasis in all these meetings and in all our congregations be put on the prayer life and on the spiritual implications of our marching orders which are: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel unto every creature."

We have a conviction that our share of the present world need can be met. And we are highly resolved by the grace of God to go out and meet it.

The above resolutions are submitted by your committee for immediate consideration and action by the conference.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois reports a fruitful year in its ministry among university students. Hundreds of young men and women going out from our homes and from all parts of the state are kept in touch with the church and nurtured in the life of the spirit through this agency.

The Wesley Foundation provides for Methodist students on the University campus a place and fellowship of worship, a center of instruction in vital religion, an opportunity for self-expression in Christian service as well as a wholesome environment for recreation and social life. It is the church following its young people away from home, keeping alive in them the idealism and faith without which technical training becomes a hollow pursuit.

We commend the work of the Wesley Foundation and urge the churches of this Conference, who share in this responsibility, to co-operate in order that this ministry may be carried on.

1. By informing the staff of the Foundation of those who are attending or planning to attend the University of Illinois, and indicating ways in which they may be served.

2. By contributing to the financial needs of the Foundation.
   (a) The mortgage indebtedness on the Social Center building was refunded during the past year for a term of ten years. However, this still leaves a heavy interest burden on the budget. We recommend the continuance of our Conference apportionment of $5,000 and urge the churches to contribute their share which is so greatly needed.
   (b) The fullest possibilities of this significant spiritual ministry can only be realized as the debt on the social center building is lifted and an adequate endowment is built up. We therefore urge that these needs be kept before our people and gifts, bequests, and annuities be solicited for these purposes.

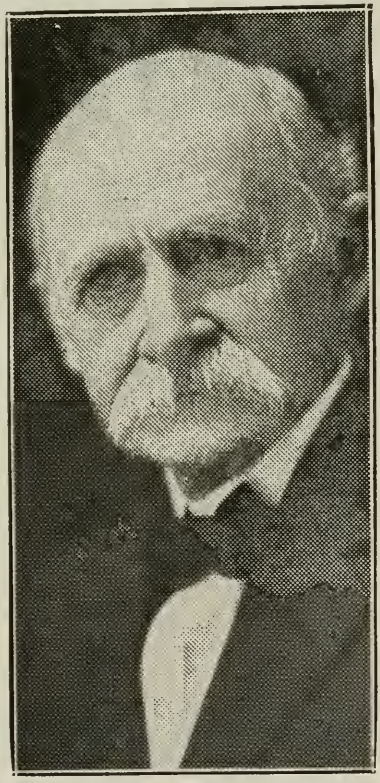
IX. Memoirs

WILLIAM W. EDWARDS

William Wirt Edwards was born March 3, 1853, at Pinckneyville, Illinois, where his parents, who were among the pioneers of this state, located in 1832. His father was a merchant and also a lawyer. He died in 1854 when William, his youngest son, was only about a year old. The widowed mother was deeply interested in the education of her children and gave them every possible assistance. She moved to Lebanon in 1869 in order that this youngest son might attend McKendree College. He was graduated in the class of 1873 receiving the degree of A.B. Later his Alma Mater bestowed upon him the degrees of A.M. and LL.B. He taught in the public schools for three years and studied law. He practiced law for five years at Carleton, Nebraska, where he also served a term as County Judge.



In 1883 he recognized a call to the ministry and joined the Southern Illinois Conference. From that time till his retirement in 1911 he served pastoral charges except the time he was engaged in educational work. His pastoral service included the following charges: Freeburg, Troy, Venice, Pocahontas, Winstanley, East St. Louis (now State Street), Sparta, Brighton, and Shipman. He was for ten years (1885-1895) a professor in McKendree College, teaching Latin and Law. His last few years in the college were devoted entirely to the Law Department. During some of these college years he also had a regular preaching place on Sunday. He was a logical thinker, a fluent speaker, a forceful preacher, and a careful administrator. Even after his retirement his indomitable energy would not permit him to rest quietly. His old interest in the field of the law impelled him to found and conduct the Lincoln Law School in Springfield. He was Dean of this institution from 1912 till the time of his death, May 12, 1930. In 1878 he was married to Miss Cora Malone of Steelville, Illinois. She died in November, 1916, leaving four sons and five daughters. About four years later he was married to Mrs. Louise Watson of Springfield, who survives him.

CHARLES WESLEY HALL

Charles Wesley Hall, son of Henry and Lucy Donelson Hall, was born near Ridgeway, Gallatin County, Illinois, September 18, 1881. He passed to his eternal home November 18, 1929, at the age of forty-eight years and two months. He was one of a family of five children. Two died in infancy, leaving him the eldest, and when he was eight years of age his father died. He was converted at the age of fourteen during a camp meeting at Bonnie, Illinois. In 1900 when he was not yet nineteen years of age, he with his mother and two younger brothers moved to North Dakota to homestead a farm.

It was his mother's desire that he should become a minister and it was through her encouragement that he entered Asbury College at Wilmore, Kentucky, where he spent two years. Later he attended McKendree College at Lebanon, Illinois, and graduated from there in 1911.

Brother Hall was admitted to the Southern Illinois Conference on trial at Mt. Carmel in 1907. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Spellmeyer at Centralia and ordained Elder by Bishop McDowell at East St. Louis. He served the following charges: 1907, Omaha; 1908, Dewey Avenue, Granite City; 1910, Piasa; 1915, Crossville; 1916, Carrier Mills; 1919, Albion; 1922, Woodriver; 1924, Marissa; 1925, Shipman; 1927, Chaplain of the Old Folks' Home at Lawrenceville (later finishing out the year at Kane where the pastor had died), and was appointed in 1928 to Godfrey where he died. For several years he had not been well, but continued as best he could until the last Sunday of the conference year, 1929. As he attempted his service at Godfrey physical strength failed him and he had to give up work. At his request he was granted the retired relation after twenty-two years of service in the conference.

While pastor at Omaha he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Laura Rudolph, April 9, 1908, who survives him. He also leaves four children: Charles Stanley, Robert Harlan, Marjorie Louise, and Ralph D. Hall. He is survived by two brothers, Rev. W. L. Hall, pastor of the M. E. Church at Uniondale, Indiana, and Frank Hall, a farmer at Arrowood, Alberta, Canada, and by his step-father, W. P. Buntin, McLeansboro, Illinois.

Brother Hall was a man of sincerity and earnestness. He had intense love for the honor and integrity of the church. His personal character was exceptionally high. As a pastor he was sympathetic, attentive and faithful. He was held in high esteem by the people he served. After several weeks of patient suffering he peacefully closed out life's day for his sun had set while it was yet day; set upon mortal life only to rise in eternal life.

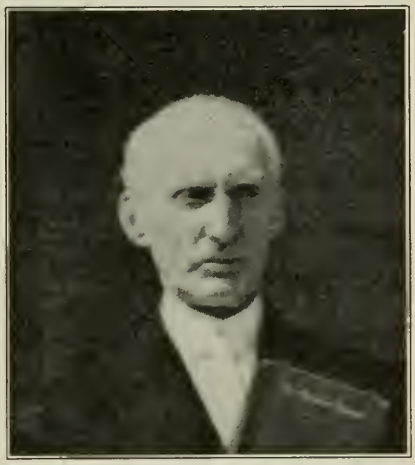
The funeral services were held in the Main Street Church, Alton, November 20, 1929, Rev. N. C. Henderson, pastor in charge. The sermon was preached by Dr. W. H. Whitlock, District Superintendent of East St. Louis District. Several other ministers assisted in the service. Thirty-two members of the conference were in attendance at the funeral. The remains were laid to rest in Oakwood Cemetery at Alton.

THEODORE CATES

As a child falls asleep in its mother's arms at evening, so at the close of the day November 29, 1929, as the twilight began to fall, Rev. Theodore Cates quietly and unexpectedly slipped away to his eternal home. He was born on a farm near Dahlgren, Hamilton County, Illinois, September 21, 1859, and was seventy years, two months and eight days of age.

He grew to manhood in the community where he was born and had the advantage of the country schools and of a school of higher learning then located in McLeansboro.

In the year 1882 he was married to Miss Canna Brumbaugh and for eleven years they lived on a farm near Dahlgren where their children were born. During a series of meetings conducted by Niles and Smith about 1890 he was converted and immediately felt the call to the Christian ministry. He united with the Southern Illinois Conference in 1893 and was appointed to the New Burnsides charge. The other charges which he served in order were: Keensburg, Maunie, Galatia, Bellmont, Marissa, Greenville, Fairfield, McLeansboro, Effingham, Collinsville, and the Wesley and Main Street Churches of Alton.



While at Greenville he led in the building of a new church and while in Alton was instrumental in uniting the Wesley and Washington Street Churches and in the building of the present Main Street Church.

During the pastorate in Collinsville his wife and faithful helpmate passed away. Since her departure he and the daughter, Jennie, have made their home together.

The children which blessed their home are Bessie, wife of Rev. Harry C. Brown, Belvidere, Illinois; Andrew, San Francisco, California; Jennie at home, and Elmer who passed away at the age of five years. There are five grandchildren: Edna Marie, Clifford Cates, Kenneth Paul Brown, and Murrace and Imogene Cates. Two brothers also survive, Alexander Cates, Dahlgren, Illinois, and Wilbur Cates, Los Angeles, California.

Brother Cates' health failed him in the month of March, 1927, and the retired relation was granted him that fall.

Rev. Cates made a fine record in all his pastoral charges and won many sheaves for his Master. His friends are numbered by his wide circle of acquaintances, and many of his ministerial brethren, with the friends of the various charges where he served, will feel the loss of his going. The funeral services were conducted in the Main Street Church, Alton. Dr. W. H. Whitlock, Superintendent of the East St. Louis District, in charge. He was assisted by several other ministers. The body was taken to Dahlgren for burial beside his wife.

"With a cheery smile and a wave of his hand,
He wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very fair
It must be since he entered there.

But we think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here—

Think of him still as the same, I say;
He is not dead—he is just away."

LAURENCE SMITH

Rev. Laurence Smith was born near Carlyle, Illinois, on July 27, 1857, and died in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Adams, on January 30, 1930, at the age of seventy-two years, six months and three days.

He was one of eight children of John and Margaret Smith. Two brothers, William Smith of Blackwell, Oklahoma, and James Smith of Anna, Illinois, three sisters, Mrs. Julia Case and Mrs. Margaret Jones of Indianapolis, Indiana, and Emma Smith of Carlyle, Illinois, and also a number of nieces and nephews survive him.

He was united in marriage to Rose Harriet Balsiger on July 1, 1891, who preceded him in death. To this union were born two children, Laurence Lloyd and Marguerite Adams of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, who remain to mourn their loss. He also leaves one grandchild, Charles Laurence Adams.

He was admitted to the Southern Illinois Conference in 1890 and served the following charges: Smithboro, Opdyke, Makanda, Murphysboro, Anna, Carmi, Belleville, Lebanon District, Marion, Olney, Newton, Altamont, and Mound City and retired in 1929. He was in active service for thirty-seven years. Rev. Smith was a member of the Olney, Illinois, A. F. and A. M. No. 140 and Knights Templar. He was a Thirty-Second Degree Mason of the Mississippi Valley Consistory of East St. Louis, Illinois, and a Modern Woodman of America from Altamont, Illinois.

He was cheerful and prayerful and always interested in the growth of the church. He was one of God's noblemen, a faithful minister of Jesus Christ, a devoted husband and a kind and helpful father. He was unassuming in his life, but sincere and consecrated to the work of the Church. He will be remembered as a wise counselor and a helpful preacher.

The funeral services were held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of Carbondale, Illinois, on February 3, 1930. Dr. W. M. Brown, District Superintendent, and Rev. C. L. Peterson had charge of the services at the church. The Shekinah Lodge No. 241 of Carbondale, Illinois, had charge of the services at the cemetery. Twenty-five members of his Conference were present at the funeral. The body was laid to rest in the Oakland Cemetery at Carbondale, Illinois.

CHARLES B. BESSE, D.D.

Rev. Charles B. Besse, D.D., was born in Jefferson, Lincoln County, Maine, June 3, 1841. There he spent his childhood and youth, securing the fundamentals of an education in village and occasional private schools. His parents were Jonas and Sophia Besse, who were members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was the second of five children, four sons and one daughter.

In 1861 he moved with the family to Bristol, Maine. He entered Lincoln Academy at New Castle, Maine, to prepare for college, and in 1864 entered Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, from which he was compelled to retire before graduation on account of poor health. After more than a year of persistent but unsuccessful effort to regain his health, in great depression of spirit and disappointed at the miscarriage of his plans, he sought the consolations of Christianity.

In the month of May, 1867, after weeks of earnest and sorrowful seeking, in his mother's garden, amid the flowers, a great peace came into his soul and in response to the call of God and the church, he preached his first sermon in the church at Pemaquid Falls in June, just five weeks after his conversion. During the remainder of the Conference year, he assisted his pastor, Rev. Paris Rowell, in several weeks' revival efforts, and later conducted a revival service of several weeks at New Harbor, among the converts of which was Miss Cordelia Snow Sparrow, the only child of Captain Isaac and Mary Sparrow, who became his wife June 25, 1868. During this year he was sent by his Presiding Elder to serve the Methodist Episcopal Church in China, Maine.

In 1869 he was received on trial into the East Maine Conference. In 1871 he was ordained Deacon by Bishop E. R. Ames. In 1873 he was ordained Elder by Bishop I. W. Wiley. In this Conference he continued until 1888 when he was transferred by Bishop Warren to the Arkansas

Conference and stationed at the Main Street Methodist Church, Little Rock. Here, in 1889, he received his title of D.D. from the Fort Worth University. In 1890 he was transferred by Bishop Bowman to the Southern Illinois Conference where he labored until failing health compelled him to retire. His four daughters having located in Orange, N. J., he went to live with them. There he was identified with the Park Avenue Methodist Church and for several years taught the Men's Bible Class.

On October 13, 1919, after an illness of nearly four years, the dearly loved companion of forty years of active ministry and twelve years of retirement passed away, leaving behind a sorely bereaved and sorrowing family.

For some time, Dr. Besse had been in poor health and the past two years were spent at Interpines, a private sanitarium at Goshen, N. Y. He passed away on February 28, 1930. Services were conducted by Rev. Joseph E. Walsh. Interment was in the family lot in Orrington, Maine.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Warren C. Blair of Somerville, Mass., and four daughters, Mrs. P. A. Parsons of Madison, N. J., Mrs. W. B. Patrick of Orange, Mrs. E. G. West and Mrs. P. H. Sheridan of East Orange, N. J.

JAMES G. TUCKER.

MRS. J. W. DEWEESE

Mrs. Caroline Deweese, wife of Rev. John Wesley Deweese, was born in the state of Kentucky, January 22, 1856. She was reared in a Christian atmosphere and at an early age she dedicated her life to God and united with the church. On November 1, 1871 she was united in marriage to J. W. Deweese, who later entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the Kentucky Conference. He served Deer Lick and Hickory Grove charges in that conference, and then transferred to the Southern Illinois Conference. Mrs. Deweese always looked after the interests of the church, that fall to the lot of a minister's wife, with faithfulness and care.

To Brother and Sister Deweese were born twelve children: six sons and six daughters. Five daughters and one son have gone on before to greet her, and there remain the husband and the following named children to mourn her departure: Mrs. Simpson of Diswood, Ill.; James of Evansville, Ind.; Robert, of Mound City, Ill.; Roy, of Kankakee, Ill.; Charles, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Morgan, of Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. Deweese departed this life at the family home in Miller City, Illinois, January 3, 1930. The funeral service was held in the Olive Branch Methodist Episcopal Church under the direction of her pastor, Rev. O. B. Allen of Cairo, Illinois, assisted by Rev. H. B. Shoaff of Mounds, Illinois, and Rev. J. Rue Reid of Thebes, Illinois. The sermon was preached by Rev. C. C. Hall, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Lawrenceville, Illinois, and the body was interred in the Olive Branch cemetery, near Olive Branch, Illinois.

MRS. MARY BRADLEY

Mary Louisa Bradley, daughter of George W. and Jane Kennedy Vallow, was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, February 4, 1857, and died at Detroit, Michigan, July 19, 1930, aged seventy-three years, five months and fifteen days. Her early girlhood was spent in Ohio, the family moving to Martin County, Indiana, in 1867. She was the third daughter and the fifth child in a family of ten children. When about seventeen years of age, she, with the family, moved to Illinois, living in and near Kinmundy. She was converted and joined the church at an early age.

On February 10, 1879, she was married to William R. Bradley of Iuka, Illinois, and was a loving and faithful wife and helpmate throughout his long ministry in the Methodist Episcopal Church. To this union were born eight daughters, four of whom preceded her in death. On December 20, 1927, the husband and father passed to his reward. Following that event, Mrs. Bradley lived with her daughters: Mrs. J. B. Sager of St. Louis, Mrs. H. O. Burroughs of Detroit, Mrs. E. D. McQuire of Carbondale, and Gladys Bradley of St. Louis. Mrs. Bradley had two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Maxwell of Kinmundy and Mrs. William Bates of Shenandoah, Iowa, and two brothers, Rev. J. L. Vallow of Denver, Colorado, and E. A. Vallow of La Junta, Colorado.

The funeral services were conducted from the M. E. Church, Kinmundy, Illinois, by the pastor, O. H. Young, assisted by Rev. W. P. MacVey, Superintendent of Centralia District, and Rev. C. C. Hall of Lawrenceville, Illinois. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

MRS. WILHELMINA BAUMGARTEN

Mrs. Wilhelmina Baumgarten, nee Kallenbach, was born in Beardstown, Ill., November 24, 1838. Being reared in a Christian home she dedicated her life to Christ in early childhood and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in which she served the Lord and humanity for many years. September 29, 1863 she was married to Rev. John C. L. Baumgarten, a member of the St. Louis German Conference, who preceded her thirty-six years ago in death. To this union seven children were born, three of whom died in infancy. A son, Rev. Edward C. Baumgarten, entered the ministry, who died four years ago as a member of the Iowa Conference.

At the age of ninety-one years, three months and twenty-one days, Mother Baumgarten was called to her eternal reward February 15, 1930, at Boody, Ill.

Rev. Andrew Kettelkamp, her pastor, conducted the funeral service and her mortal remains rest in the beautiful Zion's Cemetery at Boody, Ill., near the church in which she worshiped for so many years. The departed was a faithful wife, a loving mother and a devoted follower of Christ. She has done what she could. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Emma Pistorius, Miss Carrie Baumgarten; one son, Frank; eleven grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and many other relatives and friends.

MRS. J. E. NICKERSON

Miss Ella B. Kinney was born in Prairieton, Illinois, February 13, 1853. At the age of nineteen she professed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Olney, Illinois.

She was united in marriage to Joseph E. Nickerson on November 25, 1875. This was ten years before Mr. Nickerson united with the Southern Illinois Conference, so that in the early years of his long and successful ministry, she was the sharer of all the joys and inspiration that led to his espousal of the life of a minister.

Four children were born to this union, two of them dying in infancy, but two daughters survived to bless the life of this good woman as she came down life's road amid suffering of body but with radiant spirit and a sweet experience, Mrs. Mabel Stanley of Tilden, Illinois, and Mrs. Lela N. Hill of San Diego, California.

Brother and Sister Nickerson served the following charges in the Southern Illinois Conference: Grayville, Shawneetown, St. Elmo, Kinmundy, Edwardsville, Kane, Odin, Eldorado, Big Prairie, Chester, Tilden, Troy, State Street East St. Louis, Piasa and in 1918 Brother Nickerson was granted the retired relation and soon thereafter they moved to San Diego, California where they lived in joy and peace until the end came on July 25, 1930. She was seventy-three years, five months and twelve days of age. The funeral service was held in San Diego, conducted by Dr. Frank Linder, pastor of the First Methodist Church of that city. Mrs. Nickerson was a good woman, a loving wife and a fond mother. Our prayers go out to the bereaved husband and daughters and with them, confidently look forward to that happy meeting on the eternal shore. There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

MRS. ETHEL CREWS WEBSTER

Mary Ethel Crews was born near Fairfield, Illinois, April 9, 1875. She was the daughter of Barton R. and Samantha V. Crews, both from families of early settlers of Southern Illinois. Her father died when she was five years of age and her mother when she was thirteen. After her mother's death she moved to Mt. Vernon, Illinois, and made her home with her cousin, Mrs. Emery Rutherford and husband. She was educated in the public and high schools of Mt. Vernon and took up the teaching of school in that city.

On July 19, 1898, she was married to the Rev. J. W. Webster and to this union one son, John Vernon, now residing in St. Louis, Missouri, was born.

Mrs. Webster was an earnest Christian and she gave her utmost to the church. Her works follow her on every charge where she served as a pastor's wife. She was a perpetual member of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Southern Illinois Conference, made so by action of the Conference Society. She was also a member of the Eastern Star, Chapter No. 411, Sparta, Illinois, and of the Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, No. 24, of East St. Louis.

Always intensely loyal to the interests of the church and of her husband as a Methodist minister, she was greatly concerned at his being compelled to be at her bedside at the beginning of Conference week and was interested in his assignment to a charge for the coming year. She discussed parsonages and wondered which one she would occupy for another year, but God took this in his own hands, and gave her a mansion.

Mrs. Webster leaves to follow her to a better world, besides her husband and son, two brothers: Raymond A. Crews of Ottawa, Kansas, and Halbert O. Crews of Chicago; also a number of relatives at Mt. Vernon and Fairfield, Illinois. She is mourned by hosts of friends throughout the Southern Illinois Conference where she was so well known and so greatly loved.

She could not sing for months before she died, but she now beholds her Saviour face to face and sings the story "Saved by Grace."

Sister Webster passed into the heavenly world September 23, 1930, age fifty-five years, five months and fourteen days. The funeral service was held in the Methodist Church at Christopher, Illinois, conducted by Drs. Ressho Robertson and C. C. Hall, who were assisted by four pastors of other churches in Christopher.

The body was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Mt. Vernon, Ill.

MEMORIAL

Work executed by
THE LAWRENCEVILLE
MONUMENTAL

A Fitting Memorial

IS NOT SIMPLY A STONE

It is the product of careful thought and planning. It is intended to be a work of art—at least so with The Lawrenceville Monumental Works. We do not just make the placing and cutting of MEMORIAL STONES an ordinary matter. We TRY to carry out your wishes by: FIRST, thoroughly understanding your desires; SECONDLY, meeting with proper care and attention the utmost in placement accuracy; and FINALLY, delivering to the memorial place a finished piece of workmanship that not only benefits the memory of those for whom it is placed, but will remain throughout time.

We have never had a Memorial refused for any reason.
